Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

PREAMBLE

We, baptized members of the Church of Christ, responding in faith to the call of the Holy Spirit through the Gospel, desiring to unite together to preach the Word, administer the sacraments and carry out God's mission, do hereby adopt this constitution and solemnly pledge ourselves to be governed by its provisions. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Chapter 1: NAME AND INCORPORATION

- C1.01. Located on the northwest side of Chicago, IL, the name of this congregation shall be United in Faith Lutheran Church.
- C1.02. For the purpose of this constitution and the accompanying bylaws, United in Faith Lutheran Church is hereinafter designated as "this congregation."
- C1.11. This congregation shall be incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois.

Chapter 2: CONFESSION OF FAITH

- *C2.01. This congregation confesses the Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
- *C2.02. This congregation confesses Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and the Gospel as the power of God for the salvation of all who believe.
 - a. Jesus Christ is the Word of God incarnate, through whom everything was made and through whose life, death, and resurrection God fashions a new creation.
 - b. The proclamation of God's message to us as both Law and Gospel is the Word of God, revealing judgment and mercy through word and deed, beginning with the Word in creation, continuing in the history of Israel, and centering in all its fullness in the person and work of Jesus Christ.
 - c. The canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the written Word of God. Inspired by God's Spirit speaking through their authors, they record and announce God's revelation centering in Jesus Christ. Through them God's Spirit speaks to us to create and sustain Christian faith and fellowship for service in the world.
- *C2.03. This congregation accepts the canonical Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the inspired Word of God and the authoritative source and norm of its proclamation, faith, and life.

- *C2.04. This congregation accepts the Apostles', Nicene, and Athanasian Creeds as true declarations of the faith of this congregation.
- *C2.05 This congregation accepts the Unaltered Augsburg Confession as a true witness to the gospel, acknowledging as one with it in faith and doctrine all churches that likewise accept the teaching of the Unaltered Augsburg Confession.
- *C2.06. This congregation accepts the other confessional writings in the Book of Concord, namely, the Apology of the Augsburg Confession, the Smalcald Articles and the Treatise, the Small Catechism, the Large Catechism, and the Formula of Concord, as further valid interpretations of the faith of the Church.
- *C2.07. This congregation confesses the Gospel, recorded in the Holy Scriptures and confessed in the ecumenical creeds and Lutheran confessional writings, as the power of God to create and sustain the Church for God's mission in the world.

Chapter 3: NATURE OF THE CHURCH

- *C3.01. All power in the Church belongs to our Lord Jesus Christ, its head. All actions of this congregation are to be carried out under his rule and authority.
- *C3.02. The Church exists both as an inclusive fellowship and as local congregations gathered for worship and Christian service. Congregations find their fulfillment in the universal community of the Church, and the universal Church exists in and through congregations. The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, therefore, derives its character and powers both from the sanction and representation of its congregations and from its inherent nature as an expression of the broader fellowship of the faithful. In length, it acknowledges itself to be in the historic continuity of the communion of saints; in breadth, it expresses the fellowship of believers and congregations in our day.

EXPLANATION OF CODIFICATION:

Sections marked with an asterisk (*) are required by the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, and must appear without alteration or amendment.

Major sections are designated as chapters. Constitutional provisions are codified with two sets of numbers: the chapter number, and the related two-digit constitutional provision number, and a two-digit number. Continuing resolutions (which may provide descriptions of operational patterns or of the ongoing responsibilities of committees or other units within the organization structure of the congregation, are codified with three sets of numbers, with the third set being preceded by a Capital letter and then an indication of the year in which it was adopted.

Therefore, C10.04.02.A99 would mean:

C10 = Chapter 10

C10.04 = Chapter 10, constitutional provision number 4.

C10.04.02 = Chapter 10, Constitutional provision number 4. bylaw provision number 2

C10.04.02.A99 = Chapter 10, constitutional provision number 4, bylaw provision number 2, continuing resolution adopted in 1999.

Missing numbers – some numbers are missing from the numbering sequence in some chapters, within the Model Constitution. This is intentional. The missing numbers have been reserved by the ELCA, for possible use as section headings in future editions.
